Support the next generation of leaders in health and service!

“Fellows for Life” is the alumni network of the Albert Schweitzer Fellowship, a passion-driven, service-oriented fellowship for students in health professional fields. Today, the Fellows for Life network includes almost 2,000 physicians, nurses, lawyers, public health specialists, social workers, pharmacists, occupational therapists, and others in health-related fields.

The mission of Fellows for Life is to create a growing cohort of health and human service professionals who are leaders in service, and whose sense of personal and professional mission and source of deepest satisfaction comes from:

- Working in and with underserved communities in ways that have enduring value
- Supporting and inspiring one another in forging and sustaining lifelong paths of service
- Encouraging institutions and professions to promote service as a core value
